DESIGNING & DEVELOPMENT

Collection

It basically refers to collect materials for the preparation of teaching materials, it is important to know how those are going to help to reach the objectives.

Preparation

To prepare TLMs is required to consider the grade, learning abilities and academic goals of the students. Teachers have to make sure that the information is understandable.

Maintenance

When TLMs are already designed it is necessary to maintain them for the future. They must be stored, constantly checked and fixed in case of damage.
